" First ask yourself: what is the worst that can happen? Then prepare to accept it. Then proceed to improve on the worst."

Dale Carnegie

" The price of greatness is responsibility. "

Sir Winston Churchill

" When I examine myself and my methods of thought, I come to the conclusion that the gift of fantasy has meant more to me than my talent for absorbing positive knowledge. "

Albert Einstein

" Everything comes to him who hustles while he waits. "

Henry Ford

" Either write something worth reading or do something worth writing. "

Benjamin Franklin

" When angry, count to ten before you speak; if very angry, one hundred. "

Thomas Jefferson

" For those to whom much is given, much is required. "

John F. Kennedy

" Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. "

Martin Luther King, Jr.

" Don't confuse fame with success. Madonna is one; Helen Keller is the other. "

Erma Bombeck

" If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door. "

Milton Berle

" I'm not a good shot, but I shoot often. "

Franklin Roosevelt

" Every day I get up and look through the Forbes list of the richest people in America. If I'm not there, I go to work. "

Robert Orben

" The trouble with most of us is that we would rather be ruined by praise than saved by criticism. "

Norman Vincent Peale

" People of mediocre ability sometimes achieve outstanding success because they don't know when to quit. Most men succeed because they are determined to. "

George Allen
