" He who asks a question may be a fool for five minutes, but he who never asks a question remains a fool forever. "

Tom J. Connelly

" A man is not paid for having a head and hands, but for using them. "

Elbert Hubbard

" Bite off more than you can chew and then chew like hell. "

Peter Brock

" The foolish man seeks happiness in the distance; the wise grows it under his feet. "

James Oppenheim

" When you get to the end of your rope, tie a knot and hang on. "

Franklin D. Roosevelt

" What counts is not necessarily the size of the dog in the fight - it's the size of the fight in the dog. "

Dwight D. Eisenhower

" Things turn out best for people who make the best of the way things turn out. "

John Wooden

" The main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing. "

Steven Covey

" If a man is called to be a streetsweeper, he should sweep the streets even as Michelangelo painted, or as Beethoven played music, or Shakespeare wrote poetry. He should sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will pause to say, here lived a great streetsweeper who did his job well. "

Martin Luther King, Jr.

" If you aren't fired with enthusiasm, you will be fired with enthusiasm. "

Vince Lombardi

" You can make more friends in two months by becoming interested in other people than you can in two years by trying to get other people interested in you. "

Dale Carnegie

" We spend the first twelve months of our children's lives teaching them to walk and talk and the next twelve telling them to sit down and shut up. "

Phyllis Diller
