" Let us not be too particular; it is better to have old secondhand diamonds than none at all. "

Mark Twain

" If human beings are perceived as potentials rather than problems, as possessing strengths instead of weaknesses, as unlimited rather than dull and unresponsive, then they will thrive and grow to their capabilities. "

Bob Conklin

" Keep your face to the sunshine and you cannot see the shadow. "

Helen Keller

" Men heap together the mistakes of their lives and create a monster they call destiny. "

John Oliver Hobbes

" We have got to have a dream if we are going to make a dream come true. "

Dennis Waitley

" Most of the important things in the world have been accomplished by people who have kept on trying when there seemed to be no help at all. "

Dale Carnegie

" I think and think for months and years. Ninety-nine times, the conclusion is false. The hundredth time I am right. "

Albert Einstein

" It is not the employer who pays wages -- he only handles the money. It is the product that pays wages. "

Henry Ford

" He that is of the opinion money will do everything may well be suspected of doing everything for money. "

Benjamin Franklin

" The best thing about the future is that it comes only one day at a time. "

Abraham Lincoln

" The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their commitment to excellence, regardless of their chosen field of endeavor. "

Vince Lombardi

" Every problem has in it seeds of its own solution. If you don't have any problems, you don't get any seeds. "

Norman Vincent Peale
